Section III. Authorized Capital, Reserves, Shares

- 3.1. The Company may have equity capital and borrowed capital. The equity capital shall be formed of a share issue price and profit of the Company. The borrowed capital shall be formed by issuing debentures, raising credits and otherwise borrowing funds.
- 3.2. The authorized capital of the Company is 4,741,500 (four million seven hundred forty one thousand five hundred) Euros.
- 3.3. The authorized capital of the Company is divided into 16,350,000 (sixteen million three hundred fifty thousand) ordinary registered shares. The nominal value of each share is 0.29 (twenty nine euro cents) Euro.
- 3.4. The equity capital of the Company may not be less than 1/2 of the authorized capital referred to in the Articles of Association. If the equity capital of the Company fell to less than 1/2 of the authorized capital, within 3 months after the day on which it learned or should have learned about the existing situation, the Board shall be obliged to convene the General Meeting of Shareholders. The decision to reduce the authorized capital of the Company, however the reduced authorized capital may not be lower than the minimal amount of the authorized capital, to transform the Company or to liquidate the Company may be taken in this Meeting. The shareholders may decide to cover the losses by additional contributions.
- 3.5. If the General Meeting of Shareholders failed to take the decision provided for in Clause 3.4., Section III hereinabove to remedy the situation existing in the Company or such situation has not been remedied within 6 months after the day on which the Board learned or should have learned about the existing situation, within 2 months after the date of the General Meeting of Shareholders the Board shall be obliged to apply to court for the reduction of the authorized capital by the amount whereby the equity capital has fallen below the authorized capital.

- 3.6. After the judgement of the court to reduce the authorized capital of the Company becomes effective, the Board of the Company shall make relevant amendments in the Articles of Association of the Company changing the amount of the authorized capital and the number of shares and(or) their nominal value, and cancel shares. First of all, any own shares acquired by the Company shall be cancelled and should this prove insufficient, the nominal values of the remaining shares shall be reduced or (and) a portion of shares shall be cancelled. The number of shares shall be reduced for all the shareholders in proportion to the number of shares in the Company owned by them at the end of the day of registration of the amended Articles of Association at the Register of Legal Entities. The amended Articles of Association signed by the Chair of the Board shall be submitted to the administrator of the Register of Legal Entities within 30 days after coming into effect. If shares are cancelled, the documentary proof of the cancellation thereof shall be submitted to the administrator of the Register of Legal Entities together with the documents prescribed by law.
- 3.7. The authorized capital of the Company may be increased provided the General Meeting of Shareholders decided by at least 2/3 of votes to issue new shares or to increase the nominal value of issued shares or it may be increased using the funds of the Company and making relevant amendments in the Articles of Association.
- 3.8. The authorized capital may be reduced by the decision of the General Meeting Shareholders adopted by at least 2/3 of votes or by the judgement of court in the cases provided for by the Law on Companies.
- 3.9. The authorized capital shall be considered increased or reduced only after the amendments of the Articles of Association are registered at the Register of Legal Entities of the Republic of Lithuania.
- 3.10. The shares of the Company shall be ordinary registered shares. They shall be certificated; the emission of shares shall be registered at the Securities Commission (if required by the legislation) and a joint account shall be opened at the Central Securities Depository of Lithuania.
- 3.11. The shares shall be recorded by entries in the securities accounts that are managed in the name of shareholders by the entities prescribed by the Law of Securities Market.
- 3.12. The entries in the securities accounts shall be the proof of ownership of the certificated shares. Transfer of the certificated shares shall be recorded by a debit entry in the securities account of their transferor, and a credit entry in the account of their transferee. When concluding the transaction on the share transfer, the parties of the transaction have to provide their account managers with a written agreement indicating, inter alia, the following:
 - 3.12.1. the name, legal form, code and registered office of the Company the shares whereof are being transferred;
 - 3.12.2. the number of transferred shares according to their classes and their nominal value;
 - 3.12.3. the share issue code assigned by the Central Securities Depository of Lithuania;
 - 3.12.4. the amount of dividend on preference shares, voting and any other rights.
- 3.13. The procedure of payment for shares, the procedure of change in share class shall be according to the Law on Companies.
- 3.14. The Company shall have the following reserves:
 - 3.14.1. The revaluation reserve is the amount of the increase in the value of tangible long-term assets and financial assets resulting after the revaluation of assets. The revaluation reserve shall be reduced when the revalued assets are written off, subject of wear, depreciated or transferred into the ownership of any other persons. The revaluation reserve may not be used to reduce losses. When the financial assets are revalued, the revaluation amount transferred to the revaluation reserve may not be used for the increase of the authorized capital.
 - 3.14.2. The legal reserve shall be formed from the profit available for appropriation. It must be at least equal to 1/10 of the amount of the authorized capital and may only be used to cover the losses of the Company. The portion of the legal reserve above 1/10 of the authorized capital may be redistributed when the profit of the next financial year is appropriated. In case the legal reserve is below 1/10 of the authorized capital, then deductions to the legal reserve shall obligatory and cannot be less than 1/20 of the net profit until the minimal level of the legal reserve is reached.

- 3.14.3. The reserve for acquisition of own shares. It shall be formed from the profit available for appropriation. The reserve for acquisition of own shares may only be formed after deduction to the legal reserve is made, and it may be used to cover losses of the Company and to increase the authorized capital.
- 3.14.4. Other reserves shall be formed from the profit available for appropriation and used for the implementation of the specific purposes of the Company. Other reserves may only be formed after deduction to the legal reserve is made, and they may be used to cover losses of the Company and increase the authorized capital.
- 3.14.5. Share premium shall be a portion of the equity capital of the Company equal to the difference between the issue price and the nominal value of shares. Share premium may be used to increase the authorized capital and cover the losses of the Company.

Section IV. Rights and Duties of Shareholders

- 4.1. Shareholders shall have the following property rights:
 - 4.1.1. to receive a part of the Company's profit (dividends);
 - 4.1.2. to receive a part of the Company's assets in liquidation;
 - 4.1.3. to receive shares free of charge when the authorized capital is increased by the funds of the Company;
 - 4.1.4. to have the pre-emption right in acquiring new shares issued by the Company in proportion to the number of owned shares. The General Meeting of Shareholders by 3/4 of votes can take a decision to withdraw the pre-emption right in acquiring new shares issued by the Company. The shareholder shall have the right to transfer the pre-emption right to acquire new shares issued by the Company to any other persons following the procedure established by the Securities Commission;
 - 4.1.5. to lend to the Company in the manner prescribed by law, however when borrowing from its shareholders, the Company shall have no right to pledge its assets to the shareholders.

- 4.2. Shareholders have the following non-property rights:
 - 4.2.1. to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders with the decisive vote. Every ordinary registered share of 0.29 Euro in value shall give the right to one vote to its owner at the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - 4.2.2. upon a shareholder's written request, within 7 days from the receipt of such request the Company must offer an opportunity to a shareholder to get familiarized with and (or) present copies of following documents: the Articles of Association of the Company, documents of annual financial statements, reports on Company's activities, conclusions and reports of audit, minutes or any other documents of the General Meetings of Shareholders that are used to record the decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders, lists of the Board members, any other documents of the Company that should be public according to the laws, and minutes or any other documents of the Board meetings that record the decisions of these bodies of the Company provided that these documents do not contain any commercial (industrial) secret. Shareholders or a group of shareholders holding or owning at least 1/3 of all shares have the right to get familiarized with all documents of the Company, provided they presented to the Company the written engagement of a certain form not to disclose any commercial (industrial) secret. The information shall be considered a commercial (industrial) secret by the decision of the Board (except in cases when according the laws of the Republic of Lithuania such information is considered to be public). Persons shall be responsible for the disclosure of a commercial (industrial) secret according to the procedure prescribed by laws. If a shareholder requires, the Company's refusal to present documents shall be presented in a written form. Any disputes concerning the right of a shareholder to get information shall be settled in court.

- 4.2.3. to file a claim with the court for reparation of damage resulting from failure to perform or improper performance of one's obligations by the Manager of the Company and the members of the Board prescribed by law and these Articles of Association, and in any other cases prescribed by laws.
- 4.3. Shareholders shall have no other property obligations to the Company except for the obligation to pay up the issue price for all signed shares following the procedure prescribed in the agreement of share subscription.
- 4.4. A shareholder shall be obliged to inform the Board of the Company about any changes in his/her address before the day of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 4.5. To realize property and non-property rights, two or more shareholders may enter into a shareholders' agreement.
- 4.6. A shareholder may sell or otherwise transfer his shares to the ownership of any other person only when they are fully paid up. Both parties participating in the transfer of the shares must submit a signed contract to the persons who manage the registration of their shares.

Section V. Bodies of the Company

- 5.1. The Company shall have the following bodies: the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board, and the Manager of the Company.
- 5.2. The bodies of the Company shall have no right to take any decisions or carry out any action that violates the Articles of Association or are in conflict with the purposes of the Company's activities, obviously exceeds the limits of normal industrial-economic risk, are loss-making or economically profitless.
